

OFFICE of CATECHESIS
& EVANGELIZATION

In the fall of 2020 workshops will be offered twice a month on the Psalms and Isaiah. Psalms and Isaiah are the books of the Old Testament that appear most often in the Sunday Liturgy. In the spring of 2021 we will turn to the Book of Job to discover from his experiences invaluable lessons about suffering and the journey of faith.

The Psalms

Saint Ambrose called the Book of Psalms a gymnasium for the soul. He explains that the Psalter is filled with reflections to help us gain strength for the journey of life. Let's read some of the Psalms together and get a good spiritual work-out.

The oracles of Isaiah

The weeks of Advent are filled with oracles from the prophet Isaiah. Let's spend some time reading passages from his book and discover why Isaiah is the Old Testament prophet the church turns to most often in this special time of preparation for Christmas. Apart from the Psalms, the book of Isaiah appears most often in the three-year cycle of the Sunday Liturgy.
